

Statement of participation

Nachimani Charde

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Company law in context

This 10-hour free course gave a guide to the legal terminology of business, such as the concepts of companies, partnerships, assets and liabilities.

Issue date: 5 February 2023

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/society-politics-law/company-law-context/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: W223_1

Company law in context

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/society-politics-law/company-law-context/content-section-0>

Course summary

The legal issues involved in setting up and running a business can be complex and confusing, especially when some of the terms used don't seem to have clear meanings. Company law in context is a free course from the College of Law, offering a basic introduction to the legal concepts of companies, partnerships, assets and liabilities.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- Part A:
 - describe in general terms what a business is
 - demonstrate an appreciation of the concept of capital.
- Part B:
 - identify the main types of business medium
 - demonstrate an understanding of the key characteristics of businesses run as sole traders
 - determine what are the assets and liabilities of a business using numeracy skills.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

General introduction to company law and practice

Section 2

Introductory concepts

Section 3

Sole traders and partnerships as business mediums

Section 4

Reflection on this course

Section 5

Conclusion